<input type="checkbox"/>	Harry Lee Leadership Award – This award is presented to individuals who represent the same outstanding leadership skills as Sheriff Harry Lee of Jefferson Parish, Louisiana. Sheriff Lee was first elected as Sheriff of Jefferson Parish in 1979, and has been re-elected for an unprecedented 6 consecutive terms (1983, 1987, 1991, 1995, 1999, 2003). Sheriff Lee was arguably the most visible Asian American law officer in the nation and has repeatedly been tapped for leadership roles as a student, judge and law officer. Sheriff Harry Lee passed away October 1, 2007, from Leukemia.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Chang Apana Award - This award is presented to individuals who represent the same dedication and determination as Detective Chang Apana. The famous Hollywood movie character Charlie Chan was based on the actual life and times of Detective Apana, who joined the Honolulu Police Department in 1898. Apana was renowned for his energetic and fearless style as a detective, which resulted in a number of remarkable achievements. He retired in 1932 after serving 34 years as a Detective with the Honolulu Police Department. Detective Chang Apana passed away in 1933 and is buried at the Manoa Chinese Cemetery in Honolulu.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Milton Ng Award - This award is presented to individuals who represent the same distinguished service and commitment as Milton Ng. Milton joined the Bay Area Rapid Transit Police Department in 1972. In 1974, Milton was among a core group that founded the Northern California Asian Peace Officers Association and later served as its President. In 1986, Milton became President of the National Asian Peace Officers' Association and held this position until 1993. He was instrumental in expanding and promoting the NAPOA nationwide through fraternal, business and community engagements. Unfortunately, health issues not only cut short Milton's law enforcement career but also took his life as he passed away on October 4, 1998, from heart failure.
