Dear Community Members:

The Sacramento Asian Peace Officers Association (APOA) wishes everybody a Happy Holidays! Fortune, good luck, and health are some of the well wishes we provide each other during these celebrations. Unfortunately, crime remains an issue in our community, and we must do our part to prevent it. Below are some universal safety tips to follow:

Be aware of your surroundings. Look for people or vehicles following or watching you when walking or driving. If you see something suspicious, remain in a well-lit and populated area. Go somewhere safe and call law enforcement.

Hide your valuables. Do not display large sums of cash publicly or leave items that could be perceived as valuable inside your vehicles.

Stay in groups. Walk with a partner when possible, as there is always safety in numbers. When walking, avoid being preoccupied with your phone to maintain awareness. As a community, we can watch out for each other by being good witnesses and notifying law enforcement of emergencies.

Watch out for your community. Do not be afraid to report suspicious or criminal activities. Call 911 if you feel unsafe. Law enforcement is here to serve the community, and your call may prevent further crimes from occurring.

As a reminder, our 30th Annual Community Awards Banquet will be on Friday, June 6, 2025, at the Asian Pearl (6821 Stockton Blvd.). Please save the date—more details to follow.

On behalf of the APOA Board and Membership, have a Safe and Happy 2025!

Respectfully,

Brent Kaneyuki
President Sacramento APOA
